

Dr. Tara Singh Bam has 25 years' experiences in policy development, program management, research and evaluation in control of TB and tobacco, prevention of NCDs, health system strengthening, and HIV/AIDS control in Nepal, Indonesia, China, India, Myanmar, Papua New Guinea and Cambodia. He also serves as a member for the WHO Civil Society Working Group on NCD. He holds master degree in public health and doctorate in health system development. Currently he leads The Union Asia Pacific Office, Singapore and also Asia Pacific Cities Alliance for Health and Development (APCAT)

Dr. Singh Bam works closely with National Commission on Human Rights in Indonesia to position public health rights. As the results, ECOSOC reports 2014 (E/C.12/IDN/CO/1) recommend government of Indonesia to ratify FCTC and improve the mental health programs. He has also academic teaching and research experiences with many papers presented and published in national and international journals.