A person who contravenes the provisions of sections 20, 21, or 22 commits an offense, the court may order-

(a) cancellation of partnership, or endorsement or memorandum of understanding or any other agreement;
(b) forfeiture of the contribution from the tobacco industry; or
(c) revocation of incentive, benefit, privilege or preferential tax exemptions.

PART IX – ENFORCEMENT

26. Appointment of authorised officers

(1) The Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, appoint a person or class of persons to be authorised officers for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Authorised officers under sub-regulation (1) shall include –
(a) public health officers;
(b) environmental inspectors;
(c) customs officers;
(d) police officers; and
(e) any other person appointed by the Minister as an authorised officer.

27. Power of authorised officer to enter premises

(1) For the purpose of ensuring compliance with this Act, an authorised officer may, at any time, enter any premises in which the authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that –

(a) tobacco or a tobacco product is or has been produced, manufactured, tested, stored, labeled, sold or used;

(b) there are items or substances used in the production, manufacture, testing, packaging, labeling, promotion or sale of a tobacco product; and

(c) there is information relating to the production, manufacture, testing, packaging, labeling, promotion or sale of a tobacco product.

(2) An authorised officer entering premises under this section shall, if so required, identify him or herself to a person who is in charge of the premises.

28. Inspection powers of authorised officer

In carrying out an inspection of premises, an authorised officer may –

(a) examine tobacco, a tobacco product or other item regulated under this Act;

(b) require a person on the premises to produce for inspection, in the manner and form requested by the officer, tobacco, a tobacco product or other item regulated under this Act;

(c) open or require a person on the premises to open any container or package found on the premises which the officer believes on reasonable grounds contains tobacco, a tobacco product or other item regulated under this Act;

(d) take or require a person to produce a sample of tobacco, a tobacco product or other item found on premises and submit the samples to any tests he or she may consider necessary,
(e) require any person found on premises to produce, for inspection or copying, any written or electronic information that is relevant to the inspection or to the enforcement of this Act; or

(f) confiscate tobacco, a tobacco product or other item that does not conform to the provisions of this Act.

29. Additional powers of authorised officer

In carrying out an inspection of premises, an authorised officer may also –

(a) use or cause to be used any computer system on the premises to examine data contained in or available on the computer system that is relevant to the enforcement of this Act;

(b) reproduce the data in the form of a print-out or other intelligible output and take it for examination or copying;

(c) use or cause to be used any copying equipment on the premises to make copies of any data, record, photos or document; and

(d) scrutinise any other record system in use on the premises.

30. Obligation to make an inventory

An authorised officer who has carried out an inspection of premises and has confiscated tobacco, a tobacco product or other item that does not conform to the provisions of this Act shall make a full inventory of the tobacco, tobacco product or other item that he or she has confiscated.

31. Application for a warrant

Where an authorised officer anticipates being denied entry into premises for the purpose of carrying out an inspection, he or she may apply in advance for the issue of a warrant to enter and search the premises.

32. Use of force

(1) An authorised officer executing a warrant issued under section 29 shall not use force unless that officer is accompanied by a police officer.

(2) Where the authorised officer is a police officer, he or she may not need to be accompanied by another police officer.
33. Inspection report

An authorised officer who has inspected tobacco, a tobacco product or other item regulated under this Act, or a sample of it, shall issue a report setting out the result of his or her inspection.

34. Obligation to assist authorised officers

The owner or the person in charge of premises or an agent of the owner or the person in charge of premises to be inspected by an authorised officer shall –

(a) assist the authorised officer to carry out his or her duties under this Act; and

(b) provide the authorised officer with such information, materials or any other item which the authorised officer requires for the purpose of the inspection.

35. Obstruction and making false and misleading statements

A person shall not –

(a) obstruct an authorised officer while the authorised officer is carrying out his or her duties under this Act; or

(b) knowingly make a false or misleading statement to an authorised officer.

36. Removal and storage

(1) An authorised officer may direct that any tobacco, tobacco product or other item confiscated by him or her be removed from the premises where it was confiscated and transferred to another place.

(2) Where removal is not feasible, an authorised officer may direct that any tobacco, tobacco product or other item confiscated by him or her be stored at the premises where it was confiscated.

37. Obligation not to interfere with confiscated tobacco

Unless directed by an authorised officer, a person shall not remove, alter or interfere with, in any manner, any tobacco, tobacco product or other item confiscated.

38. Application for restoration of confiscated tobacco

(1) A person from whom tobacco, a tobacco product or other item has been confiscated may, within fourteen days after the date of seizure, apply to the High Court for an order of restoration of the tobacco, a tobacco product or other item.
(2) The High Court may order that the tobacco, tobacco product or other item be restored to the applicant if, on hearing the application, the Court is satisfied that –

(a) the applicant is entitled to possession of the tobacco, tobacco product or other item confiscated; and

(b) the tobacco, tobacco product or item confiscated is not and shall not be required as evidence in any proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act.

39. Forfeiture of confiscated tobacco

Tobacco, a tobacco product or other item shall be forfeited to the State and may be destroyed or disposed off as the court or Minister may direct where –

(a) no application has been made under section 37, or an application has been made but on the hearing of such application no order for restoration has been made;

(b) a person has been convicted of an offence under this Act in respect of which tobacco, a tobacco product or other item has been confiscated; or

(c) an authorised officer has confiscated tobacco, a tobacco product or other item and the owner or the person in whose possession it was found at the time of confiscation consents in writing to its forfeiture.

PART X – MISCELLANEOUS

40. Offences by or relating to authorised officers

(1) An authorised officer who –
